

DAVE PEARCE BIOG - 2013

DJ & Producer Dave Pearce has been at the forefront of the UK dance scene for many years. He's played all the major clubs from Ministry Of Sound in London to The Arches in Glasgow and the UK's biggest festivals including Creamfields and GodsKitchen Global Gathering. Dave has presented the UK's most popular radio shows on BBC Radio 1, BBC6 music, BBC Radio 2, hosted his own Dance Shows on ITV1, MTV and Viva, held a ten year residency at Eden in Ibiza and sold over a million compilation albums in the UK alone.

The past 12 months have seen him play the Atlantis Hotel Dubai and launch a brand new weekly Saturday night UK Dance show on the most listened to radio station in Europe BBC Radio 2, where recent guests have included Calvin Harris, David Guetta, Disclosure, Duke Dumont & the Pet Shop Boys.

He has just finished work on three new EDM tracks which will be released during the summer and is mixing and compiling the new TV-advertised BCM Summer 2013 CD for release on 14 July 2013.

Career highlights include playing the midnight set to 45,000 people at the Millenium Dome London in 2000, creating and presenting BBC Radio 1's Dance Anthems and achieving its highest ever audience figures, having a string of top ten Hits on his record label Nulife Including Ian Van Dahl - Castles in the Sky and Rui Da Silva- Touch me.

June 2013